Achievements of the College of Islamic Studies for September 2024

1. Two meetings were held by the Dean of the College: a meeting of the Promotions Committee with its members and a meeting with the College Council heads of departments.
2. One faculty member was appointed in the Department of Creed and Contemporary Schools of Thought.
3. The final exams were fully delivered to the six departments and sent to the control office, along with the exams for students with excuses.
4. All final exam grades were recorded for the 65 college departments, and reports of the college news were sent to the media center and the college events group.
5. Four meetings were held as follows: a meeting with Dr. Fatima Al-Wahsh, Head of the Department of Islamic Studies and Arabic Language; a meeting with Dr. Taha Al-Juhari, Head of the Department of Islamic Studies, Invitation, and Culture; a meeting with Dr. Emad Al-Ajeeli, Head of the Department of Creed and Contemporary Schools of Thought; and a meeting with Dr. Manal Mustafa, Head of the Department of Islamic Studies and English Language.
6. Reports for students who have been deprived of exams were completed, and all students were verified at the portal.
7. An excerpt from each course in all college departments was sent.
