Department of Economics and Islamic Banking «Bachelor's»

About the department

► About the department

The Department of Economics and Islamic Banking was established as an independent department within the College of Economics and Administrative Sciences in response to the demands of the labor market. Its curriculum is distinguished by its consideration of Islamic financial and banking needs on local and international levels. This is intended to keep pace with the increasing number of Islamic banks and the size of their resources, in addition to taking into account the developments in Islamic banking and investment operations in a way that achieves a balance between collecting and investing deposits according to the circumstances of the environment in which the faculty members, who are specialists in the field of Islamic banking, are located.

Vision and Mission

► Vision

The Department of Economics and Islamic Banking derives its vision from the vision of the College of Economics and Administrative Sciences, which stems from the vision of the Islamic University of Minnesota, which seeks to be a leader in academic and research work.

The department seeks to be the preferred choice for scholars and learners in the field of Islamic banking and to be at the top of the ranking of Islamic banking departments at universities in the countries of the Islamic world.

► Mission

- ❖ Preparing distinguished scientific and research competencies and qualifying students by providing them with the necessary knowledge of Islamic banking that qualifies them to hold successful positions in various Islamic banking sectors, and preparing students who combine economic sciences and Islamic Sharia sciences.

Department of Economics and Islamic Banking «Bachelor's»

Program Objectives
