

In the Name of Allah

Achievements of the College of Arts and Humanities* - October 2024*

Several achievements have been made at the college, the most important are:

- ❖ .Updating the Administrative Communication Guide
- ❖ .Issuing several appointment decisions for the Department of Political Science
- ❖ .Renewing contracts for several faculty members in the Department of History and Archeology
- ❖ .Updating faculty data files and submitting them to the new portal
- ❖ .Completing all tasks for the first semester
- ❖ .The commencement of the second semester for all levels in all departments
- ❖ .Holding an introductory lecture on the Latin American Studies Unit
- ❖ .The first issue of the College of Arts and Humanities Journal has been published
- ❖ publication of exam schedules for all The start of mid-term exams after preparation and the departments
- ❖ Congratulations to several faculty members for publishing some research under the university's name
- ❖ Holding two meetings for the Department of Political Science, with several circulars issued by the head of the department
- ❖ The Department of Arabic Language celebrated the International Day of the Arabic Language, honoring the winners of the competition held by the department
- ❖ Organizing a scientific seminar in collaboration with the Training and Development Center of the university titled (Historians and History Makers - Ibn Khaldun as a Model)
- ❖ .Successfully completing the mid-term exams

Allah is the Grantor of Success.

