

Achievements Report of the College of Development Studies for December 2024

In December 2024, the College of Development Studies witnessed several important developments and challenges. Below are the key achievements and updates:

- Two professors withdrew from teaching for this semester.

- Some faculty members expressed their inability to continue working due to financial returns.

- Some faculty members apologized for not providing two models for the midterm exams.

- A professor was appointed from the College of Islamic Studies.

- Dr. Marwan conducted a student assessment via Zoom.

- Dr. Abdullah Hamet assessed the student in the course group.

- A new faculty member was assigned to the Disaster Management Department.

- Dr. Mohammed Rashid withdrew from delivering the

- Several missing documents related to faculty members were completed.

