

Report of the College of Developmental Studies for February 2025

- Preparations are underway for the summer semester schedules, and course assignments are being allocated to professors.

- It was emphasized that the undergraduate stage is shared, and courses are not assigned to any specific professor.

- A ceremony was held to honor distinguished faculty members, presided over by the Dean of Administrative Affairs.

- Distinguished professors were selected for each department within the college.

- Exam forms were submitted on time, exams were conducted, and exam grades along with coursework grades were recorded.

- One professor sent the exam to the subject group before the exam date.

- Another professor sent the exam model with solutions to a student privately, which necessitated the creation of a
