

Achievements of June 2025 for the College of Islamic Studies

The first semester for the academic year 2025- - 2026 has commenced

:The Dean held three regular meetings as follows -

A meeting with the College Council -

A meeting with the faculty members -

A meeting with the students -

The purpose of these meetings was to confirm - final preparations before the semester begins

Emphasis was placed on delivering all lectures on - schedule, being considerate of students, and encouraging them

The meeting with the students was held to prepare - them for the semester, as well as to listen to their complaints and address them

:Meetings were held for the following departments -

Department of Islamic Studies in English -

Department of Quranic Studies and Sciences -

Department of Sunnah and Its Sciences -

Department of Da'wah and Culture -

These meetings were focused on preparations for - the semester and also on organizing the course textbook

Four new faculty members were appointed as - follows

- One in the Department of Da'wah and Culture -
- Two in the Department of Quranic Studies and - Sciences
- One in the Department of Islamic Studies in - English
- .A welcoming ceremony for new students was held -
- A training course was conducted to prepare new -
.faculty members
- A training course was organized on how to -
.navigate the new portal