

Achievements of November 2025 for the College of Islamic Studies

❖ Academic Meetings:

- Meeting of the Department of Da'wah and Islamic Culture was held on Wednesday, November 12, chaired by Dr. Taha Hussein Al-Johari, discussing the latest updates regarding the preparation of the university textbook and matters related to the current semester.
- Meeting of the Department of Islamic Studies in English was held on Thursday, November 13, chaired by Dr. Manal Mustafa, with an agenda covering guidance on second-semester academic follow-up, discussing issues from previous semesters and proposing solutions, and emphasizing mandatory attendance and pre-confirmation of student participation.
- Meeting of the Department of Creed and Contemporary Doctrines was held on September 23, chaired by Prof. Imad Al-ddin Abdu Al-Ojaili, with an agenda that included discussing department affairs, following up on university textbook preparation, reviewing curricula and course content, discussing proposals for new courses, and enhancing students' scientific research skills.

❖ Academic Activity:

- Commencement of the second academic semester and preparations for midterm examinations.

❖ Scientific Seminars:

- A seminar held by the Department of Qur'an and its Sciences.
- A seminar held by the Department of Hadith and its Sciences.

