

Achievements of December 2025 for the College of Islamic Studies

❖ Academic Activity and Examinations:

- Publishing the midterm examination schedules for the second semester on December 9, 2025.
- Commencement of the midterm examinations for the second semester on December 13, 2025.
- Conducting the midterm examinations through the electronic portal for the first time; the process was completed successfully and transparently, despite some minor technical challenges that were promptly addressed and resolved.
- Daily monitoring of the progress of the midterm examinations and publishing organizational reports and notices on the College's group, which contributed to the smooth and disciplined conduct of the examinations.
- Uploading course assignments to the electronic portal by faculty members, under direct supervision and follow-up to ensure compliance and accuracy in accordance with the approved guidelines.
- Resumption of classes for the second semester after the midterm examinations on December 20, 2025.

❖ Activities and Events:

- Holding a ceremony to honor outstanding students on December 19, 2025, in support of academic excellence and motivation.

❖ Appointments and Administrative Affairs:

- Completing of three new academic appointments: two faculty members in the Department of Qur'an and Its Sciences, and one faculty member in the Department of Islamic Studies (English Program).
- Adding Dr. Mohammed Makki to the College Journal group, and Dr. Hanaa to the University Textbook Project groups.

❖ Scientific Seminars:

- Holding a seminar to discuss a proposed research thesis plan for a student in the Department of Qur'an and Its Sciences.

