

Achievements of January 2026 for the College of Islamic Studies

❖ Academic Activity and Examinations:

- 1 Ensuring the stability of the educational process across the six academic departments, with regular daily lectures and immediate handling of any temporary disruptions or absences.
- 2 Completing all final examination files in terms of preparation, review, uploading, and coordination with the Examination Control Unit, with full readiness for the final exams of the first semester.
- 3 Finalizing the uploading of coursework requirements and recording their grades in all departments, with full adherence to the deadlines for closing the academic portal.
- 4 Publishing the final examination schedules for the second semester.
- 5 Creating an Excel file containing the names of faculty members and the courses assigned to them for the current semester.

❖ Administrative & Institutional Affairs:

- 1 Strengthening the academic staff through the appointment of two faculty members in the Department of Islamic Studies (Arabic Language Program).
- 2 Holding a College Council meeting chaired by His Excellency the Dean of the College, Dr. Abdulrazzaq Al-Bakri, with members of the College Council on Sunday, January 18, at 10:00 p.m. (Makkah Time), to discuss:
 - Preparations for the final examinations of the first semester.
 - Addressing issues related to examinations and lectures.
 - Opening direct dialogue with Council members.
- 3 Enhancing administrative follow-up and institutional organization through daily reports, the publication of circulars, the academic calendar, and providing technical and IT support to faculty members.

❖ Scientific Seminars & Research:

- 1 Activating the academic and research dimension by holding two scientific seminars in the Department of Qur'an and Its Sciences.
- 2 Conducting a scientific defense of a Master's thesis.
