

Achievements of the second semester, Faculty of Media 2026

In line with the college's development and to keep pace with the diversification of departmental specializations and the teaching of specialized courses

a new group of highly qualified academics has been added to the college after extensive interviews to ensure their competence and suitability for teaching

A number of professors with varying academic ranks have been appointed, including Dr. Muhammad Hassani, Dr. Najla Mustafa, Lecturer Amani Jamal, Lecturer Rafida Hatem, Lecturer Shaimaa Naeem Hamish, Lecturer Aya Muhammad Basem, Lecturer Nourhan Ibrahim, and Lecturer Mahmoud Alawneh

It was decided to open the specialized departments for the Bachelor's program, namely the Digital Media Department, the Media Production Department, the Digital Journalism Department, and the International Relations Department. The curricula, plans, and courses of these departments are being reviewed and approved by the Media College Curricula Committee. Two meetings of the committee were held on January 8 and January 15, 2026

- The new electronic portal was launched, and the midterm and final exams were conducted through it. It was an excellent experience, characterized by organization, precision, and follow-up that facilitated the educational process.

- According to a sound study plan in the College of Media, all basic and make-up lectures were conducted, and the educational process was successful thanks to the efforts and dedication of the College of Media staff.

- New faculty members are always surrounded by special care and attention. They have received training courses on Zoom, exam preparation, and even missed courses; the links to their registration were sent to them publicly and privately by the Dean of the College, Associate Professor Dr. Badia.
- Assignments and homework were uploaded by the professors to the portal and graded by the students. This process was monitored by the Dean of the College of Media, Associate Professor Dr. Badia Abdelkader.
- The final exams were opened by the Director of the Faculty of Media, Dr. Badia, and shared with department heads, the Dean, Vice Deans, the Examination Control Office, and the Examination Control Officer, Ms. Nour Omar. The final exams for the second semester were submitted early and reviewed by the Head of the Graduate Studies Department in Media, Professor Hanan, the Head of the Undergraduate Department, Dr. Badia, and Ms. Nour Omar.
- The Director of the Faculty of Media, Associate Professor Dr. Badia Abdelkader, prepared the Media Center's file containing information, ranks, and courses assigned to professors in the second semester in order to issue certificates of appreciation to them.
