

College achievements for February and March 2026

- ❖ Smooth operation of the educational process across all departments of the college.
Final exams for the second semester were conducted with transparency and discipline.
- ❖ Exam grading and score recording were completed in accordance with the approved procedure.
- ❖ Summer semester courses were assigned to all departments in accordance with the approved plan.
- ❖ The summer semester began successfully with the publication of schedules and syllabi.
- ❖ Publication of summer semester schedules within the college and in department and student groups.
- ❖ Continuous monitoring of lectures to ensure their regularity across all departments.
- ❖ Organization and activation of academic and administrative groups to facilitate effective communication.
- ❖ Supervision of exams and immediate resolution of any issues.

- ❖ Continuing coordination between the College Deanship and department chairs to ensure operational stability.
- ❖ Supporting faculty members by recognizing outstanding individuals and ensuring their entitlements are met.
- ❖ Nominating a new dean for the college, Dr. Majid bin Obaid Al-Salmi.
- ❖ Organizing a number of academic seminars within the departments to support academic and research activities.
- ❖ Holding several meetings regarding the college journal, in addition to a meeting of the Department of Creed and Contemporary Schools of Thought.
- ❖ Coordinating and arranging a meeting for the Department of Da'wah and Culture.
- ❖ Honoring the model student within the college in recognition of his excellence and as an incentive for the rest of the students.
- ❖ Launching the master's and doctoral programs in the Department of Islamic Studies in Arabic.

